- * [REDACTED] Comment. It is believed that the unloading of one combined artillery unit, probably of the 12th Gds Tank Div, on 26 and 28 August is part of the movement of such combined units from Neuruppin. [REDACTED] The loading on 28 August was probably conducted by the unit of the division which arrived on 23 August. 25X1

-  [REDACTED] Comment. The train carried an engineer unit of the GONG which probably returned to Dessau from the Finsterwalde-Wittenberg command-post exercise.
